Edwards on racing at Homestead-Miami Speedway:

"Last years win at Homestead was one of the highlights of my season. It's a Ford weekend, so I have a lot of pride in doing well at Homestead. There's still a chance that something could happen and we could win the Championship. Even though it's one in a million, there's still a chance. So, until the race starts and Kyle (Busch) gets those points we'll go there and do our best to win a Championship."

Crew chief Mike Kelley on racing at Homestead-Miami Speedway:

"It has been a good start to a promising future for the No.60 team. We are going to try some things this weekend that will help us in 2010. Everyone who has worked on our program deserves to be in victory lane and I am going to do my best to make that happen this weekend."
