QUOTES

Carl Edwards on the All-Star Race:

"The All-Star race is such an awesome experience. I'm really looking forward to Saturday night, and I know we'll have a strong Aflac Fusion for the race. It will be a lot like Saturday night dirt track racing with the format the way it is. Everything is a sprint to the end and you go 100 percent every lap and that's going to be fun. The race pays a million dollars to win and everybody wants to win it bad. The 10-lap shootout format is gonna be wild and I'm sure the fans are gonna be on their feet. It's going to be exciting."

Crew chief Bob Osborne on the All-Star Race:

"I am looking forward to returning to Lowe's for the coming events. The All-Star race is always a fun race. There are no points on the line with short sprints for race segments, so everyone goes all out. The format makes for very exciting racing."

FAST FACTS

- Carl Edwards will make his fourth appearance in the All-Star race at Lowe's Motor Speedway this weekend. In his previous two starts, Edwards has one top-five and two top-10 finishes.
